

RESPAWN - 50 ways to die (and get revived).

CHARACTER - Grim

Stuck between death and dying, you press on toward the light: again and again, and again and again. You're somewhere in the inbetween, but this wierdo just won't let you go.

One sassy MF to reprimand the player in a roguelike about dying.

SCENARIO Prerequisite	LINE
RESPAWN Player fails and returns to the starting hub	Did you see the lights? Back so soon? Oh. When did you get here? Did you miss me? I missed you. Good golly you're back! sarcastic Do it again! Do it again! sarcastic DON'T GO TOWARDS THE LIGHT! Clap clap. Why do you hate me so much? Wonderful. You missed dinner. That's what you get for skipping breakfast. All's well that ends well. It it ends, that is. Here we go again. This is getting a little old, isn't it? So desperate to die. Why? Well that was interesting. Haven't seen that one before. A hundred ways to die, they say. And still so deeply unimaginative. Try to get a little more creative. Won't you? So close. So far. Pipped at the post. The old slip and fall. The black void is alluring, isn't it? For future reference, fire is not your friend. Have you been smoking? sarcastic Come stranger, sit by the fire. Stay frosty. Well, they do say lightning never strikes twice. It's bullshit, but they do say it.
